

Geer C. M.

1. There is a fold whence none can stray, And pas - tures ev - er green,
2. Far up the ev - er - last - ing hills In God's own light it lies;
3. One nar - row vale, one dark - some wave, Di - vides that land from this:
4. Far from this guilt - y world to be Ex - empt from toil and strife-

Where sul - try sun, or storm - y day, Or night is nev - er seen.
His smile its vast di - men - sion fills With joy that nev - er dies.
I have a Shep - herd pledged to save, And bear me home to bliss.
To spend e - ter - ni - ty with Thee— My Sav - ior, this is life! A - men.
