

Happy And Hopeful

1. I am rest - ing, sweet - ly rest - ing On the prom - is - es of God;
2. I am hap - py, yes, I'm hap - py, Tho' I dwell in house of clay;
3. I am hop - ing, glad - ly hop - ing For the com - ing of the Lord,

The first system of music is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It features a treble and bass staff with lyrics for three verses. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a steady bass line.

All the pre - cious mer - it test - ing Of the Sav - ior's cleans - ing blood.
And I look for some - thing bet - ter When shall dawn the per - fect day:
For there can be no re - vok - ing Of His true and faith - ful word:

The second system continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics describe the precious merit of Christ's blood and the hope of a perfect day.

All my tears and prayers and fast - ing For my sins could not a - tone,
Then the meet - ing and the part - ing With the friends we dear - ly love
He who went a - way to glo - ry Shall re - turn to claim His own,

The third system continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics speak of the insufficiency of human efforts and the hope of meeting Christ again.

So my - self on Je - sus cast - ing Peace I found, in Him a - lone.
Shall for - ev - er - more be end - ed, In the meet - ing place a - bove.
And the saved shall tell the sto - ry Of His grace be - fore the throne.

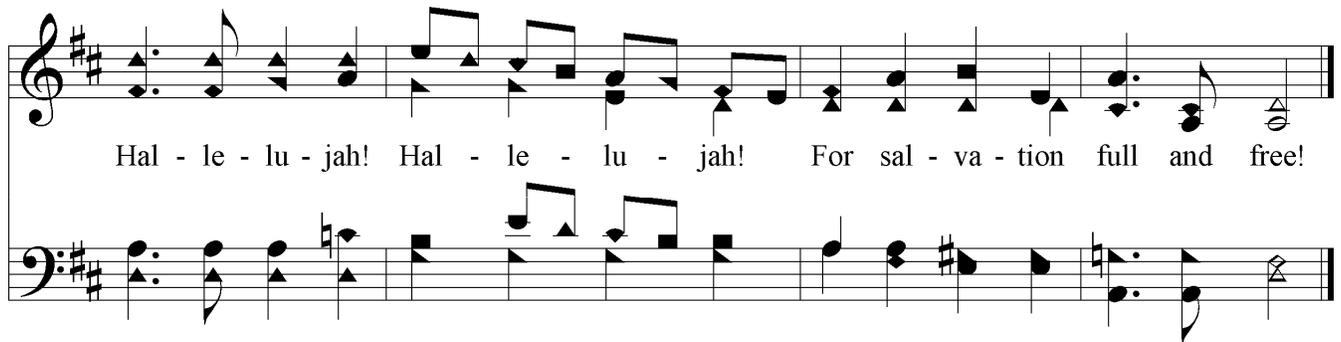

The fourth system concludes the piece with the final melody and bass line. The lyrics express the peace found in Christ and the hope of eternal life.
