

He Goes With Me There

1. While here on the earth as a pil - grim, And bound for that long prom-ised home,
2. In sweet and in bless-ed com-mun-ion, We jour - ney to - geth - er a - long,
3. By faith I'm now walk-ing with Je - sus, And cast - ing on Him all my care,
4. If then to Geth-sem - a - ne's gar - den, Or Pis-gah's bold heights I shall go,

My - self tho' a stran - ger con - fess - ing, I do not in sol - i - tude roam,
To - day I am cheer'd with a prom - ise, To - mor - row per - chance with a song;
His Spir - it in plen - ti - ful mea - sure As - sists me to do and to dare;
If He by His Spir - it im - pel me, It is for my good, I shall know.

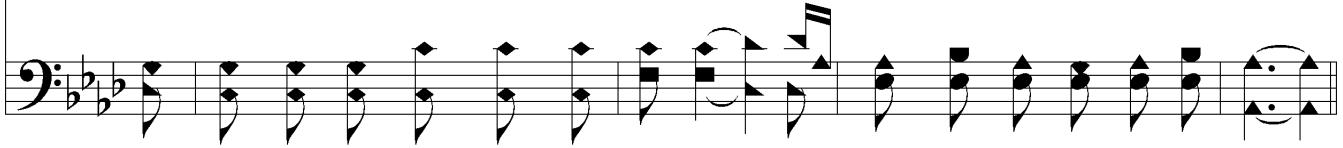

But have a most bless-ed com - pan - ion, And all the while feel-ing His pres-ence,
As - sists me to ev - er prove faith - ful, Then, Sav-ior, con - tin - ue to guide me,

My Sav-ior, so dear and so fair,
And all the while breath-ing a prayer,
To o - ver-come ev - er - y - where,
To turn me from by - path and snare,

Who, when I pass thru earth's hard plac-es
No more do I dread the hard plac-es,
And lifts me a - bove earth's hard plac-es
E'en thank-ful make me for hard plac-es,

Ne'er leaves me, but goes with me there.
Why should I? He goes with me there.
In Je - sus, who goes with me there.
Since Thou, Lord, dost go with me there.
