

The Stranger At The Door

1. Be - hold! a stran - ger stand - ing at the door; In tones of 2. Pa - tient and yet so lov - ing - ly He stands; Pierced are the 3. Thorn - y the crown up - on His head di - vine; Sin - ner, He sweet - ness hear His voice im - plore, Hark! hark! He knocks, oh bleed - ing feet and man - gled hands, While from His side a wore it for your sins and mine! Has - ten and o - pen sin - ner, sin - ner, hear! O - pen the door! 'tis Je - sus knock - ing there. crim - son flood I see, Flow - ing, O sin - ner; flow - ing still for Thee.

wide the bolt - ed door, Je - sus can save you, save for - ev - er - more.