

When Day's Shadows Lengthen

Andante

1. When day's shad - ows length - en, Je - sus, be Thou near;
 2. When the night grows dark - est, And the stars are pale,
 3. So no fears shall chill me On that un - known shore,
 4. Bless - ed war - fare o - ver, End - less rest a - lone;

Par - don, com - fort, strength - en, Chase a - way my fear;
 When the foe - men gath - er In death's mist - y vale,
 For in death He con - quered, And can die no more;
 Tears no more, nor sor - row, Nei - ther sigh nor moan,

Rall...

Love and hope be deep - ened, Faith, more strong and clear.
 Be Thou Sword and Buck - ler, - Be Thou Shield and Mail.
 His hand guards and guides me To the heav'n - ly door.
 But a song of tri - umph Round a - bout the throne.
