

From Every Place

E

1. O Thou to whom, in an - cient time, The psalm - ist's
2. From ev - 'ry place be - low the skies, The grate - ful
3. To Thee shall age, with snow - y hair, And strength, and sa - cred harp was strung, Whom kings a - dored in songs sub - song, the fer - vent prayer- The in - cense of the heart- may beau - ty, bend the knee, And child - hood lisp with rev - 'rent lime, And proph - ets praised with glow - ing tongue.

rise To heav'n, and find ac - cept - ance there.
air Its prais - es and its prayers to Thee.