

God Knows Thy Need

1. Oh hearts that ache, and bleed, and break God knows the
 2. Tho' oth - er eyes be dull and blind To mark thy
 3. Tho' dark the clouds a - bove thy head, The heav'ns be-
 (1. Oh hearts that ache, and bleed and break, depths, of all thy woes; He will Him - self grief, to note thy tear He sees; His heart yond are full of light; Dis - miss thy fears, God knows the depths of all thy woes, He will Him-self thy bur - dens take and shield thee from is true and kind, He ev - 'ry pray'r, sup - press thy dread; For thee the days

 thy bur - dens take, And shield thee from

Chorus
 the heav - iest blows. God knows thy need, He will sup - is swift to hear. God knows thy need, are bright a - head.
 the heav-iest blows.)

God Knows Thy Need

ply He will sup-ply, He know - eth what for thee is best,
He will sup-ply, He know - eth what for thee is best,

The first system of the hymn features a treble and bass staff in a 7/4 time signature with a key signature of two flats. The melody in the treble staff consists of eighth and quarter notes, with a prominent melisma over the words 'He know - eth what'. The bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment of chords.

Soon thou shalt see with clear - er eye,
Soon thou shalt see with clear - er eye,

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff melody includes a melisma over the words 'with clear - er eye'. The bass staff accompaniment remains consistent with the first system.

Soon en - ter His, e - ter - nal rest.
Soon en - ter His e - ter - nal rest.

The final system concludes the hymn. The treble staff melody ends with a melisma over the words 'e - ter - nal rest'. The bass staff accompaniment concludes with a final chord.