The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'The Great Redeemer Lives'. It consists of two staves: a treble staff on top and a bass staff on the bottom. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a common time signature. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes. The bass staff begins with a bass clef, the same key signature, and a common time signature. The bass line features a prominent dotted half note on the first measure, followed by quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are written below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables across notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat signs.
