Win The One Next To You

E♭

1. If you would work for the Mas-ter to-day, Win the one next to you;
2. Have you looked o-ver the great har-vest field, Seek-ing for work to do?
3. Close to your door may be some-one in sin, Tell him the sto-ry true,
4. You may not go to a far hea-then land, Or to a coun-try new;

If you would show some poor wan-d'rer the way, Oh, win the one next to you.
Has-ten, go forth, reap the gold-en yield, And win the one next to you.
Of Him who died that poor soul to win,– Oh, win the one next to you.
But in your home for the Mas-ter stand, And win the one next to you.

Chorus

Win the one next to you, Win the one next to you;
to you, to you;

Tell him of Je-sus, the might-y to save, And win the one next to you.
to you.
