

Though Our Hearts Dwell Lovingly

F/A - MI

Allegro moderato

1. Tho' our hearts dwell lov - ing - ly On God's won - drous care of old,
2. We are strong and we may hope To push on - ward with good cheer;
3. Rear a tem - ple, found - ed deep, Pil - lared strong with help - ful deeds,

And our glo - rious his - to - ry, Carved by Is - rael's fa - thers bold,
Shall we but in mem - 'ries grope When new du - ties claim our ear?
Broad - er views its win - dows sweep, O - pened wide to pre - sent needs.

Let not ours the er - ror be With our past to be con - tent,
God's all - know - ing, pa - tient eye Sees the goal for us to win,
Nobl - er hymns we can - not raise To our pa - tri - archs re - vered,

Tho' the past held vic - to - ry Lo, the fu - ture is not spent.
E - ons swift are roll - ing by, Heav - en's call is heard with - in.
Than to build such shrines these days, Grand - er than of old ap - peared.
