

Come, Lovely May

E $\flat$

1. Come, May, thou love - ly ling - 'rer, And deck the groves a - gain;
2. True, win - ter days have man - y And man - y a dear de - light;
3. But oh! when comes the sea - son For mer - ry birds to sing,

And let the silv - 'ry stream - lets Glide gen - tly thru the plain.
We frolic in the snow - drifts, And then - the win - ter night,
How sweet to roam the mead - ows, And feel the breeze of spring,

We long once more to gath - er The flow'r - ets fresh and fair;
A - round the fire we clus - ter, Nor heed the whis - tling storm;
Then come, sweet May! and bring us The flow'r - et fresh and fair;

Sweet May! once more to wan - der And breathe thy balm - y air.
When all with - out is drear - y, Our hearts are bright and warm.
We long once more to wan - der, And breathe the balm - y air.
