

In God, The Holy, Wise And Just

G

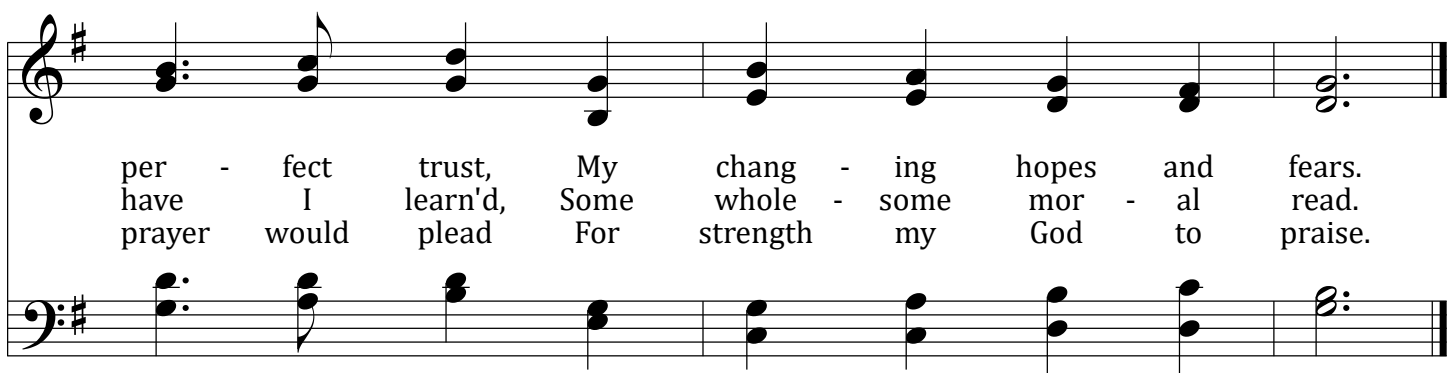

Joyfully

1. In God, the ho - ly, wise and just, From
2. From ev - 'ry page that time has turned, Since
3. Oh, should my term of life ex - ceed Frail child - hood's ten - der years, Have I re - posed with that bright sea - son fled, Some use - ful les - sons man's al - lot - ted days, Un - til the last my per - fect trust, My chang - ing hopes and fears.

have I learn'd, Some whole - some mor - al read.
prayer would plead For strength my God to praise.