

There Lives A God!

G

Allegretto

1. There lives a God! Each fi - nite crea-ture Pro-claims His rule on sea and land;
2. There lives a God! Tho' storms are sweep-ing A - cross our pil - grim paths of life,
3. There is a God! When life is wan - ing, His love is near from dread to save;

Thru - out all chang-ing forms of na - ture Is clear - ly shown His might - y hand.
More bright the morn that ends the weep-ing Thru nights of el - e - men - tal strife.
My years are all of His or - dain - ing, He on - ly tak - eth what He gave.

In ev - 'ry place is heard the call: "The Lord of Hosts has made us all."
Wher - ev - er God does choose my way, I fol - low Him with - out dis - may.
The grave shall not end all for me, Thou liv - est, God, I live in Thee.
