

CONVERSATION C. M.

"And of His fullness have all we received, and grace for grace." – John 1:16

Isaac Watts, 1719

Key of C Major

Supply Belcher, 1794

1. When God re-vealed His gra-cious name, And changed my mourn-ful state; (1.) My rap-ture seemed a pleas-ing dream, My tongue broke out in un-known strains, My (2.) My tongue broke out in un-known strains, My

2. The world be-held the glo-r'ous change, And did Thy hand con-fess; (1.) My rap-ture seemed a (2.) My tongue broke out in rap-ture seemed a pleas-ing dream, The grace ap-peared so great, The grace ap-peared so great. great. tongue broke out in un-known strains, And sung sur-pris-ing grace, And sung sur-pris-ing grace. grace.

(1.) My rap-ture seemed a pleas-ing dream, The grace ap-peared so great. great.
 (2.) My tongue broke out in un-known strains, And sung sur-pris-ing grace. grace.

pleas-ing dream, My rap-ture seemed a pleas-ing dream, The grace ap-peared so great. great.
 un-known strains, My tongue broke out in un-known strains, And sung sur-pris-ing grace. grace.

rap-ture seemed a pleas-ing dream, The grace ap-peared so great, The grace ap-peared so great. great.
 tongue broke out in un-known strains, And sung sur-pris-ing grace, And sung sur-pris-ing grace. grace.