

EVENING SHADE S. M.

"The night cometh when no man can work." John 9:4

John Leland, 1835

Key of E Minor

Baptist Harmony, p. 373 .Alto by S. M. Denson, 1911

The musical score consists of four staves of music in E Major (indicated by a treble clef and a sharp sign) and common time (indicated by a '4'). The first three staves are in G clef (Treble Clef), and the fourth staff is in F clef (Bass Clef). The music is divided into two sections. The first section has lyrics for both '1. The day' and '2. We lay'. The second section begins with 'O So' and continues with 'So' for the remainder of the section. The lyrics are as follows:

1. The day is past and gone,
The eve - ning shade beads appear;
2. We lay our garments by,
The up - on our beads to rest;

O So may we all re - mem - ber well,
So death will soon dis - robe us all,

O So may we all
So death will soon

O So may we all re - mem - ber well,
So death will soon dis - robe us all,

O So may death will soon re - mem - ber well,
So we all dis - robe us all,

EVENING SHADE S. M.

A musical score for four voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in common time, key of G major. The music consists of four staves, each with a treble clef and a sharp sign indicating the key signature. The lyrics are written below the staves, corresponding to the vocal parts. The score includes two endings (1. and 2.) indicated by a brace at the end of the music.

The lyrics are:

O may we all re - mem - ber well, The night of death is near.
So death will soon dis - robe us all, Of what we here pos - sess.
re - mem - ber well, The night of death is near.
dis - robe us all, Of what we here pos - sess.
O may we all re - mem - ber well, The night of death is near.
So death will soon dis - robe us all, Of what we here pos - sess.
The lyrics repeat the first section, then continue with the second section.
