

EVENING SHADE S. M.

"The night cometh when no man can work." John 9:4

John Leland, 1835

Key of E Minor

Baptist Harmony, p. 373 .Alto by S. M. Denson, 1911

The musical score consists of six staves of music for Alto voice. The music is in E Major (indicated by a sharp sign) and common time (indicated by a '4'). The lyrics are divided into two parts:

Part 1 (First 5 staves):

- 1. The day is past and gone, The evening shade appears;
- 2. We lay our garments by, The beads appear; rest;
- 1. The day is past and gone, The evening shade appears;
- 2. We lay our garments by, The beads appear; rest;
- 1. The day is past and gone, The evening shade appears;
- 2. We lay our garments by, The beads appear; rest;

Part 2 (Last staff):

- O may we all remember well,
So death will soon dis - robe us all,
- O may we all
So death will soon
- O may we all remember well,
So death will soon dis - robe us all,
- O may death will soon
So dis - robe us all,

The music includes various note heads (diamond, dot, square, triangle), rests, and dynamic markings like a half note with a vertical line through it.

EVENING SHADE S. M.

A musical score for four voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in common time, key of G major. The music consists of four staves, each with a treble clef and a sharp sign indicating the key signature. The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words on separate lines and others aligned under specific notes. The score includes two endings, labeled '1.' and '2.', indicated by a brace at the end of the fourth staff.

The lyrics are:

O may we all re - mem - ber well, The night of death is near.
So death will soon dis - robe us all, Of what we here pos - sess.
re - mem - ber well, The night of death is near.
dis - robe us all, Of what we here pos - sess.
O may we all re - mem - ber well, The night of death is near.
So death will soon dis - robe us all, Of what we here pos - sess.
